37th ANNUAL OMAHA SHORT

Sired by Omaha Bulls

CHAMPIONSHIP SHORTHORN CARLOAD at the 1951 International Livestock Show. Exhibited by Hugh Morris, Ainsworth, Iowa. Rated by experts as the greatest load of Shorthorns ever exhibited in Chicago. They included cattle that were purchased as feeder calves from Carnahan Bros., Elbert, Colorado. Carnahan's are using a number of bulls purchased at Omaha Sales, including one grand champion.

OMAHA SALES OFFER THE BEST BUYING VALUES

These annual Omaha Sales have served both breeders and commercial cattlemen for over one-third of a century and have annually proven the best place in America to buy a good bull or female at conservative prices. Performance of cattle purchased in these annual sales prove that this is just not idle talk.

The 1951 Omaha Sale champion female was the outstanding flashy senior heifer calf, Clara Belle 32d, purchased by John R. Cummings & Son, Elizabeth, Colorado, for $700. At the 1952 National Western Stock Show at Denver, Clara Belle 32d was the reserve grand champion female in one of the strongest shows ever held at this great exhibition.

Many of today's leading purebred and commercial herds are using, with outstanding success, herd bulls purchased at OMAHA SALES . . . at CONSERVATIVE PRICES.

Everyone has done his best to make these Omaha sales bigger and better from year to year. I can assure you personally that this is the best line-up of the 37 years of auction history in Omaha.

The Champion

CUMBERLAND RANSOM 4th, when he was the grand champion of the 1948 Omaha Show and Sale. See if you recognize him from his photo that appears at the back of this catalog. An illustration of how fitted Shorthorns, when handled properly, thrive under practical range and farm conditions.

The Calves The Sired

The end product . . . a top load of Carnahan Brothers' feeder calves at the 1951 National Western Stock Show at Denver. Many of these same calves were sired by Cumberland Ransom 4th and other bulls purchased at Omaha, and were included in the champion carload of Shorthorn fat steers at the 1951 Chicago International Livestock Show where they were exhibited by Hugh Morris, Ainsworth, Iowa.

He is a very good headed bull, is smooth and deep, is very good in the rear quarters, is low to the ground. He is good enough to go into any herd. Be sure to look him up. Would make an excellent Junior Yearling show prospect, if carried on. Calfhood vaccinated for Bangs.
